WAIVER
I,

(name of the participant) know that running is a potentially hazardous activity. I should not enter and run unless I am physically fit, medically able and properly trained. I hereby certify I am in good health, and I have trained to run the distance of the race that I am entering. I assume all risks associated with running this event, all risks being known and appreciated by me. Having read this waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of your accepting my entry into this running event, I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release all sponsors, their representatives and successors, from all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in this event even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons or entities named in this waiver. I grant permission to all of the foregoing to use my photographs of this event for legitimate purpose.

Kimberly, Zeke & Ellie and sister Jacq at MOA

Read Like the Dickens is a foundation started in memory of John Glynn's late wife, Kimberly who passed away in July 2007 of cancer. Kimberly Pierce loved her family and the Arts; she also loved to read, write, travel and learn new things. Kim loved to run small marathons . A love of reading is something Kim and John had already started to pass onto the children. The "Read Like the Dickens" foundation is set up at New Market Bank where donations can be sent. Monies raised from this race will be donated to the New Market Library.
